

JOHN M. AUGHENBAUGH, Ph.D.
CURRICULUM VITAE

COMMUNICATION

Department of Political Science
Virginia Commonwealth University
304 Founders Hall, 827 West Franklin St.
Richmond, VA 23284
804-239-3567 (mobile)
jmaughenbaug@vcu.edu

EDUCATION

- Doctor of Philosophy, Public Administration and Policy, June 2008, Virginia Tech University, Blacksburg, VA.
 - Dissertation: Meeting the Demands of Modern Governance: The Administrative Philosophy of Justice Byron White; Advisor: Dr. John Rohr.
- Master of Arts, Political Science, December 1992, Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA
 - Thesis: An Explanation of Declining Voter Turnout: The Case of Richmond, VA, 1880-1913; Advisor: Dr. Karen M. Hult.
- Bachelor of Arts, Political Science & History, June 1989, University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown (UPJ), Johnstown, PA; Advisor: Dr. James Alexander. ○
Senior History Thesis: Political Theory in the Douglas-Lincoln U.S. Senate Debates

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Administrative philosophy of retired Supreme Court Justice Byron White.
- Comparative impact of Justices Jackson, White, and Scalia on the development of U.S. administrative law (work in progress).
- Judicialization of public administration processes, particularly related to reform of public institutions & public human resource management.
- Organizational dynamics of the judicial branch and its effect on the administrative state.
- Political science instructional techniques and pedagogy.

TEACHING INTERESTS

- Public Law -- Constitutional and Administrative law
- Courts and politics
- Law and public policy
- American political science – institutions & administration
- Normative theory of public administration
- Human resource management
- Public policy analysis

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Associate Professor - Teaching
Department of Political Science (and previously, the Wilder School of Government &

Public Affairs), Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, VA, August 2005 – Present, Faculty.

- First hired as Instructor in the Public Administration program, then a joint appointment in the Public Administration and Homeland Security & Emergency Preparedness programs (2006 – 2009)
- Instructor in Political Science, 2009 – 2014
- Assistant Professor, 2015 – 2020
- Associate Professor, 2021 - Present

• Undergraduate Courses Taught:

- Constitutional and Legal Issues of Homeland Security (writing intensive)
- Introduction to U.S. Government
- Courts and Politics (aka Judicial Politics)
- Constitutional Law (Structure of Government)
- Constitutional Law (Civil Rights & Liberties) (created the course)
- Introduction to Public Administration,
- Politics as Film (co-created/taught the course with Dr. Herb Hirsch)
- State & Local Government
- Introduction to Public Policy
- Administrative Law (created the course)
- Bureaucratic Politics (resurrected the course after it not being taught for three years)
- Title IX Politics & Implementation (co-created/taught with Dr. Deirdre Condit)
- Crisis of Democracy (co-created the course with Dr. Herb Hirsch)
- Political Science Senior Seminar (writing intensive capstone course).

• Graduate Courses Taught:

- Constitutional and Legal Issues of Homeland Security (created the course)
- Law and Public Policy (created the course)
- The Constitution and Public Administration (created the course)
- Administrative Law
- Administrative Ethics
- Principles of Public Administration
- Public Human Resource Management
- Local Government Administration
- Public Policy Analysis
- Capstone in Public Administration

• Specialized/Public Teaching:

- Civil Discourse; Co-created and co-host with University Librarian Stephani (Nia) Rodgers of VCU Libraries a Podcast Series on Government Documents and Speaking in Civil and Respectful Manner about Government Topics/Issues. Began recording in January 2019. Have recorded 11 Seasons (100+ episodes) through December, 2022; over

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 2
13,300 downloads; Cabell Library; Virginia Commonwealth University;
Richmond, VA.

- Musings by Aughie. A regular column I wrote for the VCU Political Department Facebook page on various and a sundry public law, judicial branch, public policy, and American politics and government topics. August 2013 – Spring 2021. Total columns: 260.
- Have conducted over 20 independent studies and 7 mentoring course experiences with both undergraduate and graduate students at VCU;
- Host and Instructor. Law in Film movie series (7 films on the subject of how law is portrayed in the film medium) for the Political Science Department. Spring 2017. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Instructor: 1. “Fiscal Management in the Public Sector.” on July 6, 2016; 2. “Public Human Resource Management in the U.S.” on July 5, 2016; and 3. “Foundations of U.S. Constitutional Law” on July 20, 2016. Mandela Washington D.C. Fellowship, U.S. Department of State, Richmond, VA; Summer 2016.
- Instructor: 1. “Fiscal Management in the Public Sector.” on June 25, 2015; 2. “Public Human Resource Management in the U.S.” on July 8, 2015; and 3. “Local & State Gov’t in the U.S.” on July 21, 2015.), Mandela Washington D.C. Fellowship, U.S. Department of State, Richmond, VA; Summer 2015.
- Instructor, Study of the U.S. Institutes for Scholars (SUSI) program, U.S. Department of State, Richmond, VA and Washington D.C.; Summer 2013.
- Instructor, Ukrainian Government Officials on U.S. Government; Topics: Constitutional Foundations, Federalism, and Federal Government Budget Process; Spring 2013; Richmond, VA.
- Instructor, Russian Government Officials U.S. Government Training; Topics: Introduction to U.S. Government, Introduction to U.S. Constitution, and the U.S. Civil Service; Fall 2011 - Present; Richmond, VA.
- Instructor, Turkish Governors U.S. Government Training; Topics: Introduction to U.S. Government, Introduction to U.S. Constitution, Federal Government Budget Process, and the U.S. Civil Service; Spring 2010 - Present; Richmond, VA.
- Instructor, Richmond City Police Department Senior Officer Training; Topics: Administrative Law, Constitutional and Legal Issues, Strategic Planning, and Human Resource Management; Spring 2009 – Present; Richmond, VA.

- Instructor, Public Safety Institute; Topics: Strategic Planning in Emergency Management, Human Resource Management, Legal Issues, and Performance Management modules; Fall 2005 – Spring 2008; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 3

• Public Teaching: Invited Speeches, Guest Lectures, and Training Seminars

- Moderated, wrote the questions, and was a panelist for a panel at the VCU Institute for Contemporary Art on 11/09 RE: the Supreme Court case of Loving v. VA (1967); attendance: 32
- Gave a lecture for the Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs Lunch and Learn Series on 10/19 RE: the Supreme Court case of WV v. EPA and the Court's use of the major questions doctrine; attendance: 30; YouTube video of event: 109 views
- Co-lecturer, with Dr. Carolyn Eastman, at the VCU Constitution Day on September 21st RE: Prohibition and Its Repeal; attendance: 57, w/ 30 remaining at the end of the Q & A; 31 viewed the YouTube video of the event
- "The Supreme Court, Activism, and Restraint"; Guest Lecture in former student's (Owen Hughes) high school Civics course December 13, 2021; Thomas Dale High School; Richmond, VA; attendance: 23 students
- "A Woman's Right to Choose: The Intersection of Constitutional Law and Medical Science" President's (of VCU) Student Ambassadors; December 3, 2021; Richmond, VA; attendance: 18 students
- "09/11 and the Constitution: A Conversation." VCU Cabell Library Constitution Day event; September 2021; Cabell Library, VCU; Richmond, VA
- "100th Anniversary of the Ratification of the 19th Amendment." VCU Cabell and Richmond Public Libraries' Constitution Day lecture events; September, 2020; Cabell Library, VCU, and Richmond Public Library; Richmond, VA
- "Hands Off: Interpreting the 4th Amendment." VCU and Richmond Public Library Constitution Day lecture events; September 2019; Cabell Library, VCU and Richmond Public Library; Richmond, VA
- "The Constitutional Implications of the Trump Administration"; Berglund Honors Lecture; 01/25/19; Honors College; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- "The Evolution of the First Amendment Right to Protest." VCU Constitution Day Lecture; September, 2018; Cabell Library; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.

- “What Does the Constitution Protect in Terms of Free Speech?” VCU Constitution Day Lecture; 09/20/17; Cabell Library; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “Citizen-driven Change to the Constitution.” VCU Constitution Day Lecture;
John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 4
09/16/16; Cabell Library; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “Title IX Implementation”; Berglund Honors Lecture; Honors College
02/26/16; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “Reading the Tea Leaves: The Future of Supreme Court Administrative Law”; Berglund Honors Lecture; Honors College; 09/11/15; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “Fair Weather Federalism: The Case of OK and NE Suing CO RE Marijuana Sales.” Berglund Honors Seminar Series. Honors College
February 6, 2015. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “Legal Regime for Domestic Drones.” Berglund Honors Seminar Series.
Honors College; October 3, 2014. Virginia Commonwealth University;
Richmond VA.
- “The Tea Party Phenomenon.” Political Science Department roundtable on political uprisings. 16 April 2014. Virginia Commonwealth University;
Richmond, VA.
- “The Constitutional and Legal Implications of Drones.” Homeland Security
Honor Fraternity. 27 February 2014. Virginia Commonwealth University;
Richmond, VA.
- “The 4th Amendment Implications of the NSA Surveillance Program.”
Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness Department roundtable. 22 November 2013. Virginia Commonwealth University;
Richmond, VA.
- “A Delicate Balance: The NSA, FISA, and Civil Liberties.” Berglund Honors
Seminar Series. Honors College; 27 September 2013. Virginia
Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “The Human Rights Implications of the Global War on Terrorism.” 06 April
2013. Virginia Social Science Association Annual Meeting. Virginia
Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “The Supreme Court and Gay Marriage.” Berglund Honors Seminar Series.
Honors College; 01 February 2013. Virginia Commonwealth University;

Richmond, VA.

- “The Dog That Won’t Bark: The Lack of Discussion of the Federal Courts during the Presidential Campaign.” Berglund Honors Seminar Series. Honors College; October 5, 2012. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “The Constitutionality of the Affordable Care Act.” Berglund Honors Seminar Series. Honors College; September 2, 2011. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 5

- “A Gap in the U.S. Legal Regime? The Case of Terrorism.” Berglund Honors Seminar Series. Honors College; February 11, 2010. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “The Administrative Thought of Supreme Court Justice Byron White.” February 24, 2009. Berglund Honors Seminar Series. Honors College; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- “Judicial Review of Public Policy.” April 13, 2006; Judicial Politics course; Randolph-Macon College; Ashland, VA.
- “Constitutional Foundations of Public Administration.” December 12, 2005; Public Administration course; Virginia State University; Petersburg, VA.
- “Constitutional Tensions in the Public Sector.” October 15, 2003; Introduction to Public Administration course; Virginia Tech; Blacksburg, VA.
- “A Dialogue Continues.” Invited Toast; March 29, 2003; Center for Public Administration and Policy’s High Table Luncheon; Virginia Tech; Blacksburg, VA.
- Panel Chair. Intersection of Law & Policy: Opportunities & Challenges panel. March 28, 2003. 2003 CPAP High Table; Virginia Tech; Blacksburg, VA.
- “The Judiciary: Not a Nicety but a Necessity.” With Kevin L. Long. March 28, 2003. The Intersection of Policy and Law Panel. Center for Public Administration & Policy; Virginia Tech; Blacksburg, VA.
- “The Problems and Necessities of Administrative Discretion.” March 18, 2003; Administrative Law Course; Virginia Tech; Blacksburg, VA.
- “Devolution and the Federal Courts.” April 5, 2002; Devolution Panel; Center for Public Administration & Policy’s 25th Annual High Table; Virginia Tech; Blacksburg, VA.

- “A Historical Look at Administrative Discretion: Law v. Discretionary Power.” March 20 & 22, 2002; Administrative Law course; Virginia Tech; Blacksburg, VA.
- “Justice Byron White and Administrative Due Process: Balancing Competing Interests.” March 26, 2001; Legal Foundations of Public Management graduate course; Virginia Tech; Blacksburg, VA.
- “Civil Rights & Liberties: That Delicate Balance between the Interests of Society v. Individual Rights.” March 20, 2001; Introduction to American Government course; Roanoke College; Salem, VA.
- “The Federal Bench: The Least Dangerous (?) Branch in a Republican Form of Government.” February 20, 2001; Introduction to American Government course; Roanoke College; Salem, VA.
- “The Ignorance of Conventional Wisdom: The Case of Institutional Reform.” October 1, 1999; Introduction to Public Administration course; Roanoke College; Salem, VA.
- "Suing the Government: Making Order out of Chaos." April 10, 1998; Administrative Law course; Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA.
- "The Federal Courts: The Least Democratic/Dangerous Branch?" April 7, 1998; Introduction to American Government course; Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA.
- "Federal Budget as a Tool: It's only as Good as the People Using It." April 14, 1997; Introduction to American Government course; Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 6
Government course; Roanoke College; Salem, VA.

Center for Public Administration & Policy, Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA, January 2001 – 2005, Visiting Instructor.

• Graduate Courses Taught:

Performance Measurement and Benchmarking for Local Government;
Concepts and Approaches of Public Administration; and Public Budgeting.

Political Science Department, Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA, January 1995 - May 2004, Adjunct Faculty,

• Undergraduate Courses Taught:

Introduction to American Government; Public Administration; Judicial Process; Constitutional Law, Structure of Government; Constitutional Law, Civil Rights and Liberties; Administrative Law; and Political Behavior.

- Conducted two independent studies in Civil Rights and Public Administration.
- Shared pre-law advising duties during 1997-98 academic year.

SERVICE (some of which could be classified as “teaching-related” but generally service to the Department, College, University, Community and/or academic discipline)

- Chair. Two Promotion Review Committees (of Faculty Colleagues). Political Science Department. Virginia Commonwealth University. Richmond, VA. August – September, 2022.
- Member. Promotion Review Committee (of Faculty Colleague). Political Science Department. Virginia Commonwealth University. Richmond, VA. August – September, 2022.
- Chair. Three Pre-promotion Review Committees (of Faculty Colleagues). Political Science Department. Virginia Commonwealth University. Richmond, VA. February – April 2022.
- Member. Pre-promotion Review Committee (of School of World Studies colleague). Virginia Commonwealth University. Richmond, VA. February – April 2022.

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 7

- Member. College of Humanities and Sciences Faculty Council. Political Science Department Representative. Virginia Commonwealth University. Richmond, VA. Fall 2020 – present.
 - Council Parliamentarian, Fall 2022 – present.
 - Member of the By-laws Committee, Fall 2020 – present.
- Chair. University Faculty Grievance Panel. Virginia Commonwealth University. Richmond, VA. February 2021.
- Judge. We the People Civics Competition (middle and high school students). State Regional, State, and National competitions (3 competitions/year). Fall 2017 – present.
- Reviewer. Student Applications for Boren, Critical Language, and Fulbright Scholarships (have averaged 4 review panels/year). Virginia Commonwealth University. Richmond, VA. 2015 – Present.
- Member. University's Covid-19 Student Affairs Working Group. March 2020 – December 2021.
- Political Science Department (various). 2015 – present.
 - Member, Faculty Affairs Committee. August 2020 - Present
 - Chairperson, Department Curriculum Committee. August 2019 – July 2020
 - Parliamentarian. March 2020 – Present
 - Chairperson, Department By-laws Revision Committee. Fall 2018 – Spring 2019.
 - Co-chairperson and then Chairperson, Department Assessment. July 2015 – May 2021.

- Panel Member. “What Just Happened: A Review of the Fall 2020 Elections;” Political Science Department Town Hall (via Zoom); January 21, 2021; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Panel Member. “Preparing for the Fall 2020 Semester.” Political Science Department Town Hall (via Zoom). July 2020. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Panel Member. “Mass Shooting, Gun Policy, and the 2nd Amendment.” Commonwealth Times event. March 16, 2018. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Host & Discussant. Investigating and Impeaching the President. Political Science Department Town Hall. February 22, 2018. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Panel Member. Political Science Department Town Hall on Citizenship. October 12, 2017. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 8

- Panel Chair and Discussant. Title IX panel. Political Science Department Student Research Conference. April 2016. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Panel Chair and Discussant. 3 panels: political science teaching innovations; courts and politics; and public policy. Southern Political Science Association meeting in January 2016; San Juan, Puerto Rico.
- Panel Chair and Discussant. 3 Public Law and Policy Panels. Political Science Department Student Research Conference. April 2015. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Coordinator. Political Science Department Graduation Ceremony. Fall 2013 – Fall 2016. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Panel Chair and Discussant. Law and Policy Panel. Political Science Department Student Research Conference. 11 April 2014. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Faculty Chair and Member. 20 Grade Appeals. University College. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. Fall 2013 – Present.
 - Member. Vice-Provost for Student Affairs Search Committee. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. September – December 2013.
- Discussant. “Local and Regional Effects on Courts and Judicial Decisions Panel.” Midwest Political Science Association Annual Meeting. Chicago, IL. April 2013.

- Panel Chair and Discussant (multiple panels). Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs Student Research Conference. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. April 2013.
- Faculty Chairperson, 7 Grade Appeals Committees, University College. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. Summer 2012 – Spring 2013.
- Panel Chair and Discussant (multiple panels). Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs Student Research Conference. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. April 2012
- Faculty Chairperson, 7 Grade Appeals Committees, University College. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. Summer and Fall 2011.
- Panel Chair and Discussant (multiple panels). Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs Student Research Conference. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. April 2011.
- Member, Provost's Academic Regulations Committee. Virginia Commonwealth University. Fall 2010 – present.

- Panel Chair, "Simulations and Games as Tools for Teaching Political Science"

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 9
panel. Midwest Political Science Association meeting. March 2011. •

Textbook Reviewer, Cengage Publications. Fall 2010 – present. •

Textbook Reviewer, Oxford University Press. Spring 2011 – present

- Panel Chair and Discussant (multiple panels). Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs Student Research Conference. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. April 2, 2010.
- Faculty Member, Grade Appeals Committee, University College. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. Spring 2010.
- Faculty Member and Panel Advisor, Honors Council (average 4 boards/hearing per year). Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. Fall 2009 – present.
- Discussant, "Compliance with Courts" panel. Midwest Political Science Association meeting. April 2009.
- Panel Chair and Discussant (numerous panels), Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs Student Research Conference. Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA. April 10, 2009.
- Reviewer, Administration and Society. Fall 2008 – present.

- Panel Member, three graduate course grade appeals and one undergraduate course grade appeals. Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs; Virginia Commonwealth University. Summer, 2008.
- Member, Governor's Council on Human Resources. Gubernatorial appointee. August, 2007 – 2009.
- Advisor, Pi Alpha Alpha (Public Administration National Honor Society). August, 2007 – August 2008.
 - Co-coordinator, Virginia Political Science Association 2007 Annual Meetings. December 1, 2007; Virginia Commonwealth University host; Richmond, VA.
- Member, Human, Social, and Political Behavior Subcommittee of the College of Humanities and Sciences General Education Steering Committee and member of the Planning/Implementation Committee. Fall 2007 – present; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.
- Reviewer, Law and Society. August 2005 – present.
- Reviewer, Law and Policy. August 2006 – present.
- Textbook Reviewer, Pearson Publications. April 2006 – present. • Discussant.

"State and Local Government Administration Panel." Virginia Political

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 10
Science Association. November 18, 2006. University of Richmond, Richmond, VA.

- Member, Public Administration Department's Admissions Committee, Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs, September 2006 – present; Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, VA.
- Member, Faculty Council, Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs, September 2005 – 08; Chaired faculty & student awards committee, 2005 – 06; Virginia Commonwealth University; Richmond, VA.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS (mainly teaching-related, but some original critical research)

- Aughenbaugh, John M. "Teaching Public Law Courses in the Age of Trump."
Original research developed for the Virginia Social Science Association meeting.
April 2020 (conference canceled due to Covid-19 pandemic).
- Aughenbaugh, John M. "Developing and Teaching a Politics in Film Course."
Original research developed for the Virginia Social Science Association meeting.
April 2020 (conference canceled due to Covid-19 pandemic).

- Aughenbaugh, John M. "Reading the Tea Leaves: The Future of Administrative Law in the U.S." Original research presented at the Virginia Social Science Association meeting. April 21, 2018. Richmond, VA.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. "The New Federalism and Its Potential to Reign in an Activist Presidential Administration." Original research presented at the Virginia Social Science Association meeting. March 25, 2017. Richmond, VA.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. "The Challenges, Pitfalls, and Opportunities of Teaching Large American Political Science Courses." Original research paper presented at the Midwest Political Science Association meeting. March 2011.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. "Supreme Court Justice Impact on Administrative Law." Original research paper presented at the Midwest Political Science Association meeting. April 2010.
- Saladino, Chris; Aughenbaugh, John M.; and Brock, Deborah. "Teaching Political Science in the School of Public Affairs: Does The Discipline Gain or Lose?" Original research paper presented at the Midwest Political Science Association meeting. April 2010.
- Saladino, Chris, and John M. Aughenbaugh. "Teaching International Relations and Political Science in the Public Affairs School Model." Original research presentation at the Midwest Political Science Association meeting. April 2009.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. "Meeting the Demands of Modern Governance: Justice Byron White." Original Research presented at the Midwest Political Science Association meeting. April 2008.

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 11

- Newmann, Bill; Brock, Deborah; Saladino, Chris; and John Aughenbaugh. "Doing Political Science: Are We All Political Scientists?" Panel Discussion at the Midwest Political Science Association meeting. April 2008.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. and Kevin Long. "Prophets without a Paradigm: The Federal Judiciary and Institutional Reform Litigation." Original Research presented at Courts and Social Change Panel of Southern Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Savannah, GA: November 8, 2002.
 - Paper was nominated for the American Political Science Association's CQ Press Award for best paper written in 2002 by graduate students.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. "The Administrative Thought of Justice Byron White." Original Research Presented at the Southern Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Atlanta, GA; November 1, 2000.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. and Kevin Long. "Does Outcome Follow Notion?: Role of Organizational Theory in Court Directed Reform of Prisons." Original Research presented at Staffing and Decision Making in the Lower Federal Courts Panel of Southern Political Science Annual Meeting, Atlanta, GA; October 29, 1998.

- Paper was nominated for the American Political Science Association's CQ Press Award for best paper written in 1998 on the law and courts by graduate students and was nominated for the Southern Political Science Association's Pi Sigma Alpha Award for the best paper presented at the 1998 meetings.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. and Kevin Long. "The Ignorance of Conventional Wisdom: Federal Court-Directed Institutional Reform as a Management Process." Original Research Presented at Administration and Reform of Judicial System Panel of Southern Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Norfolk, VA; November 8, 1997.

RELATED ADMINISTRATIVE POSITIONS

Associate Chairperson, Political Science Department, January - December 2015 • Duties include course scheduling, building physical plant, graduation application approval, organizing department graduation ceremony, and new faculty/adjunct orientation.

Chairperson, Homeland Security & Emergency Preparedness (both undergraduate & graduate programs), October 2010 – May 2012.

Coordinator, Graduate Program in Homeland Security & Emergency Preparedness, May 2007 – October 2010.

- Duties include: student recruitment & program of study advisement (80+ students); course scheduling; recruitment & selection of faculty.

Associate Director, Virginia Tech Richmond Center, Virginia Tech, April 2004 – August 2005

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 12

- Managed 4 continuing education programs for state agencies (videoconference training, grant writing workshops, etc.), totaling $15,000;
- Managed the day-to-day operations of the Virginia Tech Richmond Center, including scheduling of space and technical support for video conferencing, online, and live courses and programs, maintaining the Center's $200,000 budget, and supervising program support personnel;
- Directed the Center's Masters in Public Administration, including recruitment for 20 student cohort, advising of all program students (30+), all course scheduling, & procurement of faculty;
- Responded to grant requests, request for proposals and technical assistance agreements;
- Assisted with the development and implementation of a marketing plan for the university's programs and services available in the Richmond area.

Economic Development Specialist, Economic Development Assistance Center (EDAC), Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA, August - December 1999 & May 2000 – March 2004 •

Provided day-to-day management of EDAC's $250,000 operating budget. • Procured and managed sponsored research projects in excess of $200,000, servicing various Virginia localities, local planning district commissions, and federal government agencies (see partial listing on next page).

- Supervised over 10 graduate assistants, undergraduate work-study students, and professional support staff.
- Developed project expertise in the areas of performance measurement and benchmarking, strategic planning & development, target market analysis, and program feasibility analysis.

PUBLICATIONS

- Invited Op-Ed; "The Government Is Different: Governor Youngkin's New Administration." Published in Virginia Capitol Connections; Spring 2022.
- Invited Op-Ed; "Calls to reform qualified immunity are coming from left and right. I'm still skeptical." Published in USAToday; November 7, 2021
- Review of Untrodden Ground for Public Administration Review; submitted May 2016.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. and Kevin Long. "Prophets without a Paradigm: The Federal Judiciary and Institutional Reform Litigation." Projected submission date: January 2017. Projected journal: Administration and Society.
- Aughenbaugh, John M., and Chad R. Miller. "State R & D Tax Credits: A Constitutional and Policy Perspective?" Projected submission date: Winter 2016. Projected journal: Law and Policy.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. "The Administrative Thought of Justice Byron White... Guiding and Transforming Public Administration." Projected submission date: Winter, 2016. Projected journal: Administration and Society.

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 13

- Aughenbaugh, John M., and Chad R. Miller. "The Challenge of Taking Property for Economic Development Post-Kelo." Lead article in the PA Times. March 2007.
- Aughenbaugh, John M. Contributor to the Encyclopedia of the First Amendment. Congressional Quarterly Press: Washington, DC. 2008. ○
Entries include the following:
 - Connick v. Myers;
 - Elrod v. Burns;
 - Rutan v. Republican Party of Illinois;
 - U.S. v. National Treasury Employees Union; and
 - Justice Byron R. White.

- Aughenbaugh, John M. Contributor to the Encyclopedia of the U.S. Constitution. Facts on File, Inc.: New York, NY. 2008.
 - Entries include the following:
 - Darby v. U.S.;
 - Flast v. Cohen;
 - Griggs v. Duke Power;
 - Panama Refining v. Ryan;
 - Rosenberger v. UVA; and
 - Schechter Poultry v. U.S.

- Aughenbaugh, John M. Review of Katherine Naff's To Look Like America: Dismantling Barriers for Women and Minorities in Government. In the Section on Women in Public Administration quarterly newsletter. May, 2003.

- Aughenbaugh, John M. and Kevin Long. "Justice Is Another State Budget Casualty." in The Roanoke Times. November 5, 2002

HONORS/AFFILIATIONS

- Received an Affordable Course Content Award from the VCU Cabell Library to convert my POLI 313 (Civil Rights & Liberties) course into textbook-less one to save the course students ~$120 and improve student accessibility
- Nominated for College of Humanities and Sciences Outstanding Teaching Award, Spring/Fall 2020.
- Nominated for College of Humanities and Sciences Outstanding Teaching Award, Spring 2019.
- Nominated for College of Humanities and Sciences Outstanding Teaching Award. Spring 2014.
- Member, Executive Board. Section on Teaching and Learning. American Society of Public Administration. 2012 – 2015.
- Member, Executive Board. Section on Public Law and Administration. American Society of Public Administration. 2011 – 2014.
- Finalist for Outstanding Dissertation Award (Humanities, Business, and Social Sciences Division); Virginia Tech University; February, 2009.
- Nominated for Outstanding Teaching Award, College of Humanities and Sciences, Virginia Commonwealth University, Spring 2007 & Spring 2008. • Treasurer. Section on Public Law and Administration. American Society of Public

John M. Aughenbaugh, Ph.D. Curriculum Vitae, Updated December 2022 14
Administration. 2002.

- Fellow, Virginia Tech's Academy for Leadership Excellence, 2002. • Nominated for Executive Committee of Ethics Section, American Society of Public Administration, Fall 1999
- Recipient of the Outstanding Teaching Recognition Award, as selected by the Virginia Tech Political Science Department's faculty, Spring 1999
- Co-Faculty Member of the Year, Political Science Department, as selected by Virginia Tech's chapter of Pi Sigma Alpha, 1996 - 1997 Academic Year • Virginia Tech Outstanding Graduate Student Leader Award Recipient, 1996 - 1997

Academic Year

- Virginia Tech Graduate Teaching Assistant Award Nominee, 1995 - 1996
Academic Year
- Member, American Planning Association, 2000 - 2004
- Member, American Society of Public Administration, 1996 - present •
Member, American Political Science Association, 1995 - present

REFERENCES

Dr. Judy Twigg
Former Chairperson, Political Science Department and Former Director of the Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs Department of Political Science
Virginia Commonwealth University
Richmond, VA 23284
804-828-8051
jtwigg@vcu.edu

Dr. Karen Hult
Professor, Political Science Department (0130)
Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
Blacksburg, VA 24061
540-231-5351
khult@vt.edu

Dr. Susan Gooden
Professor, Public Administration Program and Dean
L. Douglas Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs
Box 842028
Virginia Commonwealth University
Richmond, VA 23284
804-828-7078
stgooden@vcu.edu