

David S. Kerr

Bachelor of Arts in Economics, George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia
Masters in Business Administration, (MBA), American University Washington D.C.
Third year undergraduate program, University of Edinburgh, Scotland

Current:

Columnist (since 1993 for a range of newspapers)
Co-host of Central Virginia Public Television's weekly news program
Adjunct Instructor in political science at Virginia Commonwealth University
Instructor at the Graduate School in Washington, D.C.

Prior positions:

Director of Industry Outreach and Congressional Relations – for the Joint Planning and Development Office. A joint agency organization (NASA, FAA, DOD, DOC) to coordinate the modernization the nation's air traffic control system.

Military Legislative Assistant, U.S. Senator Mike Crapo

Democratic Professional Staff, House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure

Elected Member, Stafford County School Board

Modernization Liaison, Federal Aviation Administration, Office of Congressional Affairs

Chief of Staff to the Associate FAA Administrator for Research and Acquisition

Regulatory Economist, FAA

Economist, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

Military Service:

United States Navy, Intelligence Officer, USNR